ORAL JUDGEMENT

This matter was heard on 15th August 1999. Orally, order has been pronounced to allow this writ petition but judgment could not be dictated. Today in the Court, the learned counsel for the parties have stated that on 15th August, 1999, the respondents could not remain present and the fact that the petitioners has already been given appointment as helper could not be brought to the notice of this Court. A joint request has been made that now this writ petition may be disposed of in the terms of Purshis passed by them. This has been signed by both the counsel for the petitioner and respondents. The petition has been posted as helper. On 15th August, 1999, during the course of arguments, the learned counsel for the petitioner has given out that the petitioner will forego his claim for backwages. This has been reiterated in this Purshis.

The Special Civil Application is disposed of in the terms of this Purshis which will be a part of this order. Rule stands disposed of accordingly. No order as to costs.
